Week: Jan 23-27

Name: Joe Dockery

Grade: Masters

Current Project: Teaching workshops at FETC Conference

Monday: By the end of the day I will understand how a technology magnet high school in Florida has 100% of its students Adobe certified by the time they graduate.

Tuesday: By the end of the day I will have demonstrated my skill at professional development by presenting a three hour workshop on animating with Adobe Flash at the FETC conference.

Wednesday: By the end of the day I will have demonstrated my skill at professional development by presenting a three hour workshop on Photoshop for Video and a one hour presentation on our Social Norms project in the Adobe Booth at the FETC conference.

Thursday: By the end of the day I will have demonstrated my skill at professional development by presenting a one hour presentation on DSLR video in the Adobe Booth at the FETC conference.

Friday: By the end of the day I will have traveled 3,000 back home!
