

Mount Si – No excuses conventions

Possessives – who owns what?

1. Singular – Add an apostrophe and an s.
I like Mr. Hart's mustache.
2. Plural – Add an s and an apostrophe.
The seniors' diplomas were awarded right after the ceremony.
3. Do not add an apostrophe to the possessive its.
The dog bit its tail.
4. It's means it is.

Homonyms – use them wisely...

1. To (direction or preposition), too (also, lots), two (the number)
2. Their (belongs to), there (the place), they're (they are)
3. Were (past tense of are), where (an unknown location)
4. Your (belongs to you), you're (you are)
5. Aloud (I can hear it), allowed (permitted)
6. Whether (in any case), weather (clouds and rain)
7. Witch (black hat), which (either/or)
8. Loose (not tight), lose (did not win)
9. Woman (one), women (two)

Spelling – look it up!

Separate

College

Definitely

Receive

Clothes